

FISHBONE DIAGRAM

Topic:

The diagram is a fishbone (Ishikawa) diagram template. It consists of a central horizontal spine. At the left end of the spine is a green arrowhead pointing left. At the right end is a green fish head pointing right. The spine is divided into three equal sections by two vertical red lines. Each of these three sections contains five horizontal dotted lines for writing. The entire diagram is enclosed in a blue border.